

News monitored for: Lakme Fashion Week

Bombay Times

They've scorched the fashion ramp earlier as well, but this September, the three reigning Miss Indias will take to the Mumbai Fashion Week in a different stride. Manasvi Mangai, Pantaloons Femina Miss India-World 2010, Nicole Faria, Pantaloons Femina Miss India-Earth 2010, along with Neha Hinge, Pantaloons Femina Miss India-International 2010 will do the showstopping act for Delhi-based designer Ritu Kumar.

Said designer Amrish Kumar who will be co-presenting the show with his mother Ritu. "This is the first time we are participating at the Mumbai Fashion Week. We haven't done that since its inception over five years ago. Mumbai has always shown a fabulous response to our designs. And we look forward to the pre show. To make

Reigning Miss Indias to take to Mumbai ramp

Manasvi Mangai, Nicole Faria and Neha Hinge will turn showstoppers for designer Ritu Kumar at the Mumbai Fashion Week this September, writes Nimisha Tiwari

Ritu Kumar

showstoppers, who are the reigning Miss Indias."

Ritu Kumar is geared to add some festive colours of gulal, haldi and mehendi to the outfits on the ramp at her show. "As the theme is Winter/Festive for the fashion week, the collection will have these elements interwoven for the new-age fashionista. Models will sport Indian aesthetics in a way that can be stylishly worn in a modern day silhouette," added Ritu.

Since this couturier has often had the privilege of opening fashion weeks, will

LEGGY LASSES: Neha Hinge,